Club Orientation and Fun Events

Date: 05/07/20

Venue: Main Block Conference Hall

You can't wait for inspiration. You have to go after it with a club.

As our club is meant for service, it needs a great team work and support. To need a great team work every one of our club members needs to get know each other. To make everyone get know each other we made a group event to make our club members closer.

Firstly, the gathering was started by delivering some pep talks on Youth Red Cross club's origin, motto and many more. And followed by what our club has done and to be done was speaking by. So as a whole it was a great evening for everyone present there.

As a whole, “public service must be more than doing a job honestly, It must be a complete dedication to the people and to the nation”. Finally the event ended with a motivational spirit for providing service to the need.

CIT Compound Wall Cleaning

Date: 09/07/20

Venue: CIT Compound Wall

If you have time to lean...You have time to clean...

The college campus is the place where the education is provided, by the same way it is the duty of the students to keep the campus and its surrounding clean. The Youth Red Cross of CIT had been stretching its helping hand towards keeping the campus clean all the time. In the same way, YRC organised this year's one of the biggest event of cleaning the posters on the college wall.

This event became one of the major events conducted by Youth Red Cross of CIT contributing towards making a cleaner and good looking college compound. The campus walls which were filled with posters were cleaned. The members of YRC club coordinated among themselves and cleaned the compound Walls in a manner unhindered to the public.

The members organised themselves around 6.30 am in the morning and started the work of cleaning. Volunteers of 2nd, 3rd and final years were present. The cleaning took place until 10.00 am. After removing the posters, servants were to white wash the walls, surprisingly our 2nd year volunteers voluntarily took their brushes and extended their service of cleaning and white washing till 01.00 pm. The event ended with a consolation from the Student Staff Advisor along with a vote of thanks from the Club Secretaries by thanking and motivating the club members for the upcoming events.

YRC Board Installation

Date: 14/07/20

Venue: Near Main Gate

As a part of club activities and making our clubs name beyond our college We Youth Red Cross of CIT had installed a new Club Board near Main gate on 14/07/20 by Honourable Chief Guest Dr.S.Shanmugam (Dean of Student Affairs) and Dr.M.Thirumarimurugan (Dean of Extra Curricular Activities), who made screens to open up the YRC Board.

YRC Club members, all other club secretaries and CIT students had attended this function and made this occasion as memorable one. The Chief guests gave valuable advice to club volunteers and motivated them for events coming henceforth.

Elocution and Debate

Date: 25/07/20

Venue: L 212, L 211

“Words have incredible power. They can make people’s hearts soar, or they can make people’s hearts sore”

On tribute to Dr.APJ Abdul Kalam’s Remembrance Day We Youth Red Cross of CIT had conducted Elocution and debate competition in both Tamil and English languages for YRC volunteers on topic of “Engineers role in current Technology development” and “Will India satisfy the dreams of APJ’s in 2020?”

This event paved way for all volunteers to showcase their talents and gain confidence to forthcoming academic activities. Prizes were distributed for the winners and motivated the participants for their courageous talks.

“A good orator is pointed and impassioned” the mistakes made by the YRC members in elocution have been discussed, rectified and they are motivated and empowered by senior YRC volunteers and made the small buds to blossom.

Blood Stem Cell Donors Awareness

Date: 27/07/20

Venue: Main Block Conference Hall

Blood stem cell donor's awareness conducted by Youth Red Cross of CIT by joining hands with Datri Blood stem cell donor registry by Ms.S.Swathika (Donor Drive Coordinator) to create awareness among students about the blood disorders that can be cured by blood stem cell transplant.

“Don't think of organ donations as giving up a part of yourself to keep a total stranger alive.it's really a total stranger giving up almost all of themselves to keep part of you alive”

About, how a person can donate their blood stem cell to save the patient who suffers from blood cancer and blood disorders under some certain criteria's for an hour and the registration process were done for the interested students.

The blood stem cell donation has made many people's life valuable and her speech enlightened our volunteers about the importance and benefits of blood stem cells transplantation.

“The safety of the people shall be the highest law.,”

Legal Awareness Workshop have been conducted by Youth Red Cross of CIT, in which the speech was given by Smt.Adhilakshmi Logamurthy(Head of Tamil Nadu Women’s Advocate Association) for first years and club Volunteers regarding the basic laws and principles of Indian Democracy.

The event covered topics about Women’s rights, Right to Information Act, Difference between Civil and Criminal cases and Ragging issues. This speech cleared many doubtful questions related on legal works.

The event also gave chance for discussing current scenario of Tamil Nadu regarding the NEET exam and Agricultural problems. At the end of the session she motivated students who have different career approaches and pursue their dreams.

Campus Cleaning

Date: 21/10/20

Venue: Near Hostel stores and Front stores

(Stride and Watchful support Assimilating every bit Culminating all efforts and Hardships to take our country to the Harbour of wealth and prosperity)

The college campus is the place where the education is provided, by the same way it is the duty of the students to keep the campus and its surrounding clean. The Youth Red Cross of CITH had been stretching its helping hand towards keeping the campus clean all the time. In the same way, YRC organised this year's one such event on cleaning the campus as a part of Swatch Bharat.

The members organised themselves around 6.30 am in the morning and started the work of cleaning. Volunteers of 2nd, 3rd and final years were present. The cleaning took place until 9.00 am.

The cleaning covered the places of hostel stores and front stores where we majorly cleaned the plastic wastes and sweeping the roads to make the campus clean.

Nutrition in Adolescents Age

Date: 03/01/21

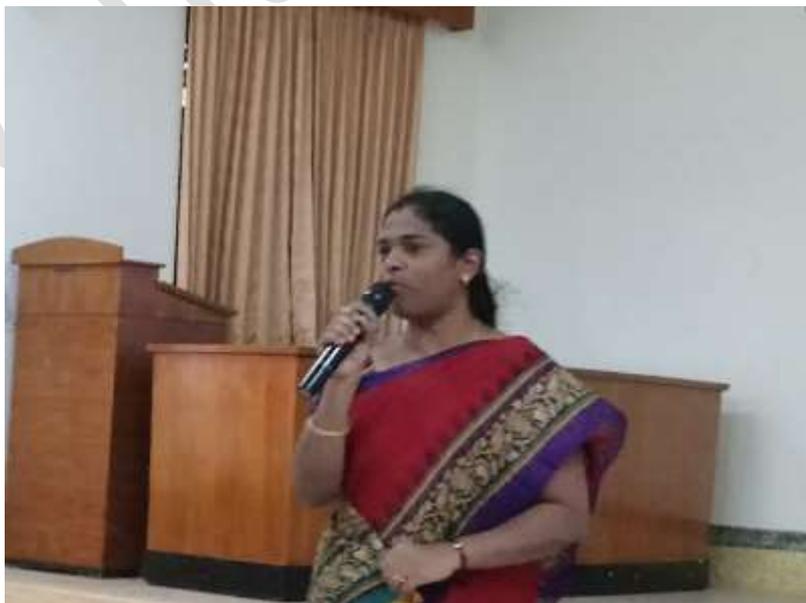

Venue: Main Block Conference Hall

“The greatest wealth is health”

Youth Red Cross of CIT, a club of diverse ideas. As a service club we also care about the physical wellbeing of the people. So we conducted an awareness program on “Nutrition in adolescent’s health” for the members of our club. The speech was given by Dr.M.Siva Sakthi (Assistant Professor – Dr. NGP Arts and Science).

In recent days nutrition is an important factor. India is a country with huge number of youths. They form the pillar of our nation. In that case their health is very important for the betterment of our nation. Present food practices lead to a lot of problems and cause serious damage to the people, both physically and mentally. So we tried our best to educate them about the alarming issues that revolve around health and nutrition.

The program was about various food items and their benefitting factors. We discussed about hereditary diseases and various malnutrition problems. We talked about the nutrients present in various fruits and vegetables. The knowledge about the problems caused by the junk foods were shared and a proper way of leading a healthy life was spoken.

Farmers Day Event

Date: 06/01/21

Venue: Manickampalayam

“Recognized by our name. Remembered by our action. Revered by our service”

Our motto, as so we made a day of remembrance to few farmer families near Manickampalayam (Annur). Youth Red Cross of CIT organized an event on 7th January 2021 on behalf of Farmers’ Day (23/12/2021).

We started from CIT by 8:30am with all farming equipment. About 50 members of the YRC Club went to that village to celebrate the farmer’s day. First we met a farmer who is the head of the village. He took us to the field and explained how they will do farming in their own fields. He also showed us how to check the conditions the soil and sow the seeds, according to the soil condition. He also taught us and made us to do the farming in the field, which was a different and a delightful experience. We sow some seeds with the help of the other farmers. He was telling us the consequences that they face now-a-days and the technology developed in the farming. Our club members also gave some ideas to him.

After doing some field works, we came back to their living area. They taught some other filed works how to plant the trees. Our club members voluntarily and enthusiastically participated in the field works with the village farmers. We had a lunch with them at the afternoon. We enjoyed the living experience with the families of that village. Many school kids also joined with us to celebrate the farmer’s day with us. At last, we assembled all the 15 families of the village and distributed the farming equipment’s and appreciated the work they taught us.

“Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on earth.”

On the ending ceremony, many farmers thanked us and shared the experiences about the current farming techniques. They felt happy to celebrate the farmer’s day with us. At the whole, it is really a satisfied and enjoyable event for all the members of the Youth Red Cross of CIT.

Voter's Day Event

Date: 25/01/21

Venue: CIT Main gate

“Don't Sell Your Vote, Don't Sell Your Self Respect, Vote with Conscience”

According to the sayings, we the members of Youth Red Cross of CIT celebrated Voter's day on 25/01/21. On the beautiful morning of the 28th January, we stood in front of CIT entrance and we spread awareness regarding the importance of voting. We displayed the posters regarding voter's day. About 40 students hold the posters and stood in the pathway. All the students and staffs who were coming to the college, school students and the trespassers stood and read our posters and gained knowledge about the voting importance.

We had done the awareness program in the peaceful manner. We had achieved the attention of everyone who walks on the pathways to know about the voting. Nowadays, there is decrease in the voting percentage on the election booths. To minimize this, we created the awareness by our posters to know people about the voting. The awareness program is regarding the right to vote and we the members of Youth Red Cross are proud to take part in it.

Youth Red Cross Day

Date: 15/02/21

Venue: Library Block Conference Hall

“We lose ourselves in books and we ourselves there too”

We the members of Youth Red Cross of CIT on behalf of youth red cross day celebrated by conducting awareness program on book reading and awareness about newspaper for YRC volunteers on February 15, 2021. The program was presided by the club secretaries under the guidance of YRC Staff advisor.

An inspirational speech by Mr.Elangovan. His motivational speech encourages reading skills and paved way for many fellow volunteers about reading techniques.

“A book is a gift you can open again and again”.

The sayings of the Mr.Elangovan helps the fellows of YRC to prioritize the goals and to improve tranquility. YRC day is celebrated in a propitious and salutary way. The day ended in the satisfactory mind.

Disaster Management Awareness Program

Date: 17/02/21

Venue: Main Block Conference Hall

“Preparedness is the only way we can combat a natural disaster”

Disaster management awareness program was conducted by our Youth Red Cross of CIT on 17 February 2021(Saturday), in our college at main block conference hall to get awareness among students, how a disaster occurs naturally, as well as the skills to escape from the disasters happening in their locality.

The program was presided by the club secretaries under guidance of YRC staff advisor. This event was addressed by Mr. K.Mohan Kumar, Mr. D.Udhaya Kumar and Mrs.Mekkalai Kumari from the team of Sri Sathya Sai disaster management and with some volunteers from KCT. The event was held for the whole day. Morning session was fully about the classes on how to handle the disasters like floods, cyclones, earth quakes, tsunami .they are however disastrous in their impact when they affect human settlements. Human society have witnessed a large number of such natural hazards in different parts of the world and we have tried to learn to control these processes to some extent. Afternoon was totally practical sessions like building rescues, to tie different types of knots, handling fire related problems, first aid etc.,

The event was totally interactive and very useful. “Helping people in need is a good and essential part of life,a kind of destiny”. We the YRC as a service team learned how to help people in the time of disaster and in situation where people stands alone without help and we were proud to be part of this awareness.

Women's Day Event

Date: 08/03/21

Venue: Library Block Conference Hall

True to the aforesaid quote,our esteemed institution, CIT paid due heed and respect by acknowledging and thereby celebrating the Women's Day in quite a grand manner between 6th and 8th of March,2021, by collaborating with the Youth Red Cross. The three day - long was jam packed with wide range of activities,which aimed at bringing into light,the role of the “often neglected components” of our Indian society,the women!

The event, had a great start on the 6th of March,by engaging the students in various fun events,so as to attract their attention and there from, motivate them to attend the further two days with a great zeal and curiosity. The events were so entertaining that at the end of the day, all that the students were left with, was a great deal of fun,to be suffice enough for attending the sessions further down the lane. The atmosphere of festivity, bloomed in then!

The second day, the 7th of March, began, with a touch on the event's topic of attention. The students were divided into groups, to debate on Women's Empowerment,in the contemporary world. The session was filled with a red-hot debate, as the ones debating on their hot seat,let their emotions flow along with their valid points on the topic. Later, the winners were felicitated, with the true spirit of recognizing their efforts. The day also aimed at keeping a track on the health of women. A “slow cycling race” was held, bearing the aforesaid in regard. The second day too, had a happy-note ending, with the students' enormity of satisfaction and involvement, even more enhanced.

Finally, on the red-lettered day, the 8thof March, the Women's Day, The session was followed by the guest, distributing a few noble texts to eight students of our college. The three days long event, turned out to be too smooth,because of the constant week long efforts of the students along with their professors. The contribution made by everyone right from planning to execute the same, for the successful happening is applaud able. Last but not the least, the purpose of the event in educating the students about women empowerment, proved to be a success filled job. The purpose was achieved!

Blood Donation Camp

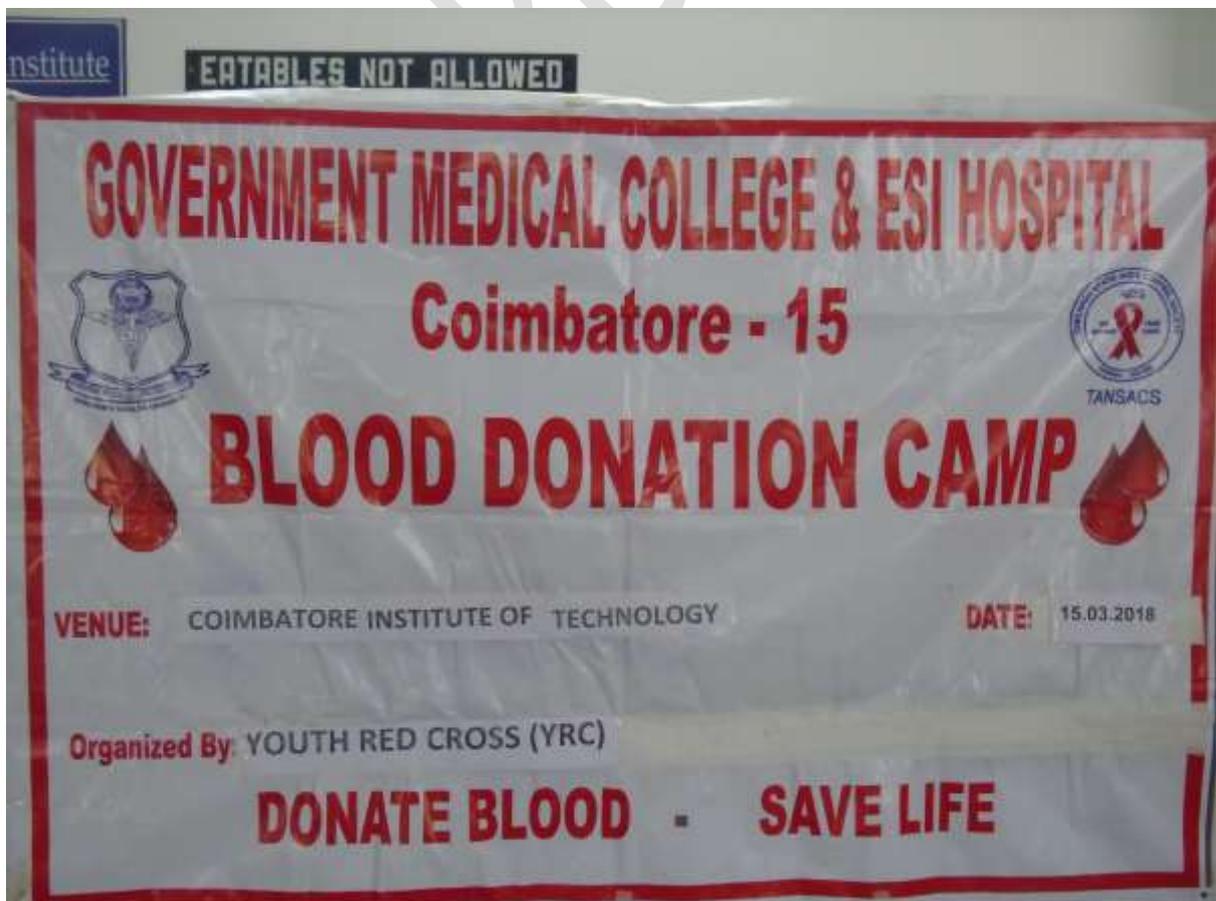

Date: 15/03/21

Venue: CIT Auditorium

We the members of Youth Red cross of CIT organized a Blood donation camp on 15th March 2021. Not everyone can save a life, but we have an opportunity to help those who are sick, injured, or in need by donating blood. So we joined hands with Government Medical College and ESI hospital.

The camp was started by 8.30am. All the arrangements such as beds, sanitation etc., were made. Before donating the blood the bodily conditions of donors such as blood pressure, haemoglobin content, height, weight, diseases (if any) are checked. Then the eligible donors started donating. There was an active participation of students in donating the blood. The Blood donation camp was continued till 3p.m. Around 65 members including staffs and students donated the blood.

The program was presided by the club secretaries under the guidance of YRC staff Advisor.

Campus Cleaning

Date: 17/03/21

Venue: Near Car Parking

The Youth Red Cross of CIT had been stretching its helping hand towards keeping the campus clean all the time. In the same way, YRC organised this year's one such event on cleaning the campus as a part of Swatch Bharat.

The members organised themselves around 6.30 am in the morning and started the work of cleaning. Volunteers of 1st, 2nd, 3rd and final years were present. The cleaning took place until 9.00 am.

The cleaning covered the places of Car parking where we majorly cleaned the plastic wastes and sweeping the roads to make the campus clean.

Fun Events

Date: 19/03/21

Venue: Library Block Conference Hall

“Life throws no excitement,if there is no taste of fun”

Considering the above statement,the Youth Red Cross Club of the CIT, held truly entertaining events in the premises. This event was hosted by the second year members of the club for the fresher’s,under the guidance of the third and fourth years.

In total,the team came up with four events,to enjoyably engage the students. One of the top-hit events was the game,in which students were divided in groups and asked to arrange seven letters hung at each one's back,into a word.Likewise, every team was asked to frame three words of seven letters each. Another attractive event of that day, was this “puzzle-event”, in which the students were asked to reassemble the bits and pieces given to them,into a picture! This event proved to have attained the motive of the day,by completely immersing the participants in a fun world. The third event was a quiz contest,in which the participants we're shortlisted on the basis of their knowledge in various fields,viz.GK , while the second round was more a reasoning-based one, containing much of riddles(funny ones though) and stuff. This event,in addition to entertaining the audience,stood apart for its inculcation of thought processes,too. The last event of the day,was a tower building contest in which,the participants were provided with balloons, scissor and a cutter. The team building the highest tower,was declared the winner and thereby felicitated. This event filled the audience with much laughter and cheers,that the atmosphere felt too vibrant. The one day fun event, scheduled with four distinct and super-exciting contests,was a grand success.
