Dear Venu

Subject: Offer letter and Contract of Service

We are pleased to offer you internship with Reorder Analytics Pvt. Ltd. (hereinafter known as the “Company”). The following terms and conditions will apply should you accept our offer. Please take a moment to review this information, as it outlines important details of your service contract with the company. Also, please review Appendix 1, which details the Key Employment Terms (KET) for this contract.

Appointment

You will be employed as Junior Intern. You will report to the Research Head, or any other person appointed in lieu of the Business Head by the Company.

Commencement date and Probationary period

Your internship is between May 8, 2020 (hereinafter known as “commencement date”) to Nov 29 2020.

Working Hours

You will be required to work 45 hours a week. However, you are expected to devote sufficient time to your duties to enable them to be carried out efficiently.

Salary

You shall be paid a monthly stipend of Rs.12,000 with effect from the commencement date of your employment. The monthly stipend is prorated, should you work for a lower number of hours than that detailed under section “Working hours” of this service contract. Based on your performance you will be eligible for a salary hike at end of two months.

Overtime Payment

Only in cases pre-approved by the Company or its authorised representatives, you will be eligible to receive an overtime allowance should you be required to work beyond the 45-hour work week.

Veno

May 11 2020

Taxes

You will be responsible for payment of all taxes on your employment income and benefits arising from your employment with the Company. You're liable for any personal taxes which may become payable in relation to any amount paid by the company. [Including income tax, services tax or other personal taxes whatever applicable). Reorder will not be held liable for any such liabilities.

Annual Leave

You will be entitled to 6 days paid leave during internship, Additional 4 day of leave to be given before the final exam.

Sick/Hospitalisation Leave

You will be eligible for 7 days of paid sick leave during internship, if no hospitalisation is necessary. Should hospitalisation be required, you are eligible for paid leave of up to 30 days per calendar year, less the amount of sick leave taken. Hospitalisation leave will be confirmed upon producing the requisite certification by a company-approved doctor or a government doctor (including doctors from approved public medical institutions).

Reimbursement of expenses

The Company will reimburse you for out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred by you in performing the duties under this contract. You shall provide the Company with receipts, vouchers, or other evidence for such out-of-pockets payments made by you. You should seek the approval of the Business Head or any other person appointed in lieu by the Company prior to incurring such expenses.

Conduct and engagement

You shall serve the Company honestly, faithfully and diligently to the best of your ability and comply with the rules and policies of the Company. You shall further agree to conduct yourself in such a way as to not injure the reputation of the Company.

If at any time during your service with the Company you, either directly or indirectly, engage or interest yourself, whether for reward or gratuitously, in any work or business other than that relating to your duties in the Company, you shall inform the Company about the same. This needs to be done prior to you taking on such an engagement. Course related activities in University is exempted.

Notice period, and termination

Either the Company or you may terminate this internships contract at any time by giving to the other 30 days' notice, or salary payment in lieu of. Notice shall have to be given in writing.

However, the Company reserves the right at all times to terminate your services without notice period or salary payment in lieu of, if you are absent from work for 3 consecutive days (excluding the rest day) without seeking leave or if you are, in the reasonable opinion of the Company, found guilty of indiscipline. Acts of indiscipline include misdemeanor, misconduct, negligence, or be in breach of any of the terms of this offer or any other rules and regulation laid down by the Company from time to time for its staff.

Upon termination, all your and the Company's rights and duties toward each other shall cease except those of your covenants and obligations hereunder that, by their terms, are intended to survive the termination of this contract.

Dealing with Confidential Information

You shall not, at any time, without the Company's prior written permission, during the continuance of this employment contract as well as after its termination, disclose any Confidential Information to anyone outside of the Company, or use or permit to be used any Confidential Information for any purpose other than the performance of your services for the Company.

Furthermore, you understand that the Company is now and may hereafter be subject to non-disclosure or confidentiality agreements with third persons which require the Company to protect or refrain from use of Confidential Information. You agree to be bound by the terms of such agreements in the event you have access to such Confidential Information.

You shall also cooperate with the Company and use best efforts to prevent the unauthorised disclosure or use of any and all Confidential Information. During the term of employment, you shall not, without the Company's prior written approval, directly or indirectly disclose to anyone the terms of this employment.

"Confidential Information" means all trade secrets and confidential or proprietary information, whether or not in writing, concerning the Company's business, intellectual property, technology, business relationships or financial affairs which the Company has not released to the general public. This information can be in paper, electronic or any other form. By way of illustration, Confidential Information may include information or material which has not been made generally available to the public, such as: (a) corporate information, including plans, strategies, methods, policies, resolutions, negotiations or litigation; (b) intellectual property, including training curriculums, teaching materials, lesson plans, teaching aids, training manuals (c) marketing information, including strategies, methods, customer identities or other information about customers, prospect identities or other information about prospects, or market analyses or projections; (d) financial information, including cost and performance data, debt arrangements, equity structure, investors and holdings, purchasing and sales data and price lists; and (e) operational and technological information, including proprietary software, designs, methods, procedures, formulas, improvements, concepts and ideas; and (f) personnel information, including personnel lists, reporting or organisational structure, resumes, personnel data, compensation structure, performance evaluations and termination arrangements or documents. Confidential Information also includes information received in confidence by the Company from its customers or suppliers or other third parties. Such information may include, without limitation, financial data, resident/client lists, their contact information, email addresses, mobile and landline numbers, credit card, debit card information, bank account numbers, etc., that is otherwise not obtainable and/or circulated in the public domain.

Ownership of Developments and Intellectual Property Rights

You shall make full and prompt disclosure to the Company of all curriculums, methods, modifications, improvements, ideas, products, processes, computer programs, techniques, know-how, graphics or images, and audio or visual works and other works of authorship (collectively termed "Developments"), whether or not patentable or copyrightable, that are created, made, conceived or reduced to practice by you for the Company (alone or jointly with others) or under your direction during the performance of services during the term of this contract. You shall also transfer, to the Company and its successors all of your right, title and interest in all Developments that (a) relate to the business of the Company or any customer of the Company or any of the products or services being researched, developed, manufactured, performed or sold by the Company or which may be used with such products or services; or (b) result from tasks assigned to you by the Company; or (c) result from the use of premises or personal property (whether tangible or intangible) owned, leased or contracted for by the Company, and all related copyrights and copyright applications, and other intellectual property rights in all countries and territories worldwide and under any international conventions ("Intellectual Property Rights").

However, you are not obligated to transfer to the Company any Development which, in the sole judgment of the Company, reasonably exercised, is developed entirely on your own time and does not relate to the business efforts or research and development efforts in which, during the term of this contract, the Company actually is engaged or reasonably would be engaged, and does not result from the use of premises or equipment owned or leased by the Company. However, you shall promptly disclose to the Company any such Developments for the purpose of determining whether they qualify for such exclusion.

Company property and its return

All developments, files, letters, notes, reports, records, or other written, photographic or other tangible material containing Confidential Information, whether created by you or others, which come into your custody or possession, are the exclusive property of the Company to be used by you only in the performance of your services for the company. Any property situated on the Company's premises and owned by the Company, including without limitation computers, disks and other storage media, filing cabinets or other work areas, is subject to inspection by the Company at any time with or without notice.

In the event of the termination of this contract for any reason, you shall promptly deliver and return to the Company all Developments, files, letters, notes, reports, records, or other written, photographic or other tangible material containing Confidential Information or not, and other materials of any nature pertaining to the Company and your services under this contract, and will not take or keep in your possession any of the foregoing or any copies. Failure to do so will result in penalties being imposed by the Company, and they will be borne by you. Proper care should be ensured to all the electronic assets of the company (laptops, mobile phones, Testing devices). Consultants are responsible for any loss or damage to the electronic assets.

Avoidance of Conflict of interest

You represent and warrant that you have no outstanding agreement or obligation that is in conflict with any of the provisions of this contract, or that would preclude you from fully complying with the provisions of this contract, and further certify that you will not enter into such conflicting agreement during the term of this contract. You shall advise the Company at such time as any activity of either the Company or another business presents you with a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest. In the event of a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest, you agree to fully comply with mutually agreed upon resolutions to resolve the foregoing situation.

Non Solicitation

In view of your access to the Company's trade secrets, Confidential Information, proprietary know-how, and knowledge of the Company resulting from your relationship with the Company hereunder, you further agree that you shall not, directly or indirectly, in any manner, other than for the benefit of the Company or without the Company's prior consent, during the term of this contract and for a period of twelve (12) months after the termination or expiration of this contract (the "Restricted Period"), regardless of reason: (a) call upon, solicit, divert, take away, or accept or conduct any business from or with any of the customers or prospective customers of the Company or any of its suppliers; and/or (b) solicit, entice, or attempt to persuade any employee or instructor of the Company to leave the Company for any reason or otherwise participate in or facilitate the hire, directly or through another entity, of any person who is employed or engaged by the Company or who was employed or engaged by the Company.

You acknowledge and agree that if you violate any of the provisions related to this clause, the running of the Restricted Period will be extended by the time during which you engage in such violation(s). You agree that the restrictions imposed by the provisions of this covenant are fair and reasonable and are reasonably required for the protection of the Company.

Indemnification

You agree to indemnify and hold the Company, its affiliates and their respective directors, officers, agents and employees harmless from and against all claims, demands, losses, damages and judgments, including court costs and attorneys' fees, resulting from or arising out of any breach by you of any representation,

INTERNSHIP CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Atshaya Visalakshi G.A (Roll No. 1731010) M.Sc Software Systems student of CIT Coimbatore, has interned with Healthcare Technology Innovation Centre (HTIC), IIT Madras from 1st June 2020 to 30th November 2020.

During the internship, Atshaya worked on the development project titled “Intelligent digital assistant for radiology reporting”. This was a full stack development project executed individually by Atshaya, with development in Angular and Django services, and linking to public web based APIs for accessing medical images and metadata. The prototype has been developed using the OpenI Indiana University Chest X-ray dataset, and combines image access and rendering using Konva library, vector overlay components and text annotation on the image, and clinical diagnostic report features on the text information. Atshaya has worked on an extensive feature list involving front end development for enabling multiple useful features for radiology report assistance, and image analysis features for enhancing visibility and visual search and inspection of medical images. Further, Atshaya has worked on advanced features such as integrating standard lexical ontologies for radiology, and differential diagnosis user interface for mapping ‘may-cause’ and ‘may-be-caused-by’ relationships and providing an automatic conversion to radiology report sentences from the user interactions. In addition, Atshaya has also explored use of deep learning for recognizing important signs in chest X-rays based on pytorch xrayvision module.

Atshaya has demonstrated tremendous throughput in the span of the internship, and has produced commendable and quality outcome, following best practices in version control and coding standards. We appreciate the quantum of contribution Atshaya has provided single-handedly in the project, and wish her the best for her future endeavours.
