Special moderation of an overall maximum of 15 marks (taking into account the entire arrear courses from First Year / First Semester to final semester) be given in addition to the general moderation of 5 marks already given in a single semester taking care of the fact that the overall maximum moderation marks (general moderation + special moderation put together) shall not exceed 20 in any case in any semester including First year / First semester

(or)

The above special moderation of an overall maximum of 15 marks may also be distributed over several courses in several semesters apart from the general moderation

- (iv) For B.E./ B Tech. students, admitted during 2001-2002 and onwards, the grade moderation in theory courses is applied as follows.

A total maximum of 3 marks per semester, not exceeding 2 marks per course be given in order to secure higher grade (wherever applicable) starting from the course which requires least mark(s)

Scheme of Moderation

- (i) The scheme of general moderation for all branches is that a maximum of 5 marks per semester be added in a single subject or distributed over several courses, so that the candidate passes in as many courses as possible
- (ii) Moderation is not applicable to Practical / Project Work and Viva Voce examinations
- (iii) As a special gesture for the outgoing students of all UC Courses, special moderation is applied as given below so that the candidates pass the examination and become eligible for the award of degree
  - a. Special moderation of an overall maximum of 15 marks (taking into account the entire arrear courses from First Year / First Semester to final semester) be given in addition to the general moderation of 5 marks already given in a single semester taking care of the fact that the overall maximum moderation marks (general moderation + special moderation put together) shall not exceed 20 in any case in any semester including First year / First semester
(or)
  - b. The above special moderation of an overall maximum of 15 marks may also be distributed over several courses in several semesters apart from the general moderation
- (iv) For B.E./ B.Tech students, admitted during 2001-2002 and onwards, the grade moderation in theory courses is applied as follows

2001 – 2014 Regulations:

A total maximum of 3 marks per semester, not exceeding 1 mark for the ranges of marks 50 to 54 and 56 to 59 and 2 marks for the other ranges of marks namely 60 to 69, 70 to 79, 80 to 89 be given in order to secure higher grade starting from the course which requires least mark(s) (3 marks for pass grade in theory courses only).

2015 Regulations : ( Under CBCS)

A total maximum of 3 marks per semester but not exceeding 2 marks per course for the ranges of marks 50 to 59 be given in order to secure higher grade starting from the course which requires least mark(s) (3 marks for pass grade in theory courses only)

- Chairperson welcomed all the members of the result passing board and requested the Deputy Controller of examinations to present the result analysis for the approval of the board.
- Resolved to adopt the guidelines Issued by Anna University, Chennai for the students admitted from 2021 – 2022 vide its letter number 4041/AU/CAC/Rel. Grading/2022 Dated: 25th June 2022, as follows

		Adopted for the students admitted from the Academic year 2021-2022
1	Internal external ratio for theory courses	40:60
2	Internal external ratio for practical courses	60:40
3	Passing requirements	50% of total marks (Internal + External marks with a minimum of 45% of marks prescribed for the end semester examination)
4	Moderation	Considered only for the courses having overall pass percentage less than 65%. Maximum of 5 marks per student per subject distributed over one or more courses in order to get enable the students to get pass
5	Normalization	Considered in the case of two or more batches of same class, when the class average of batches is very low compared from overall average
6	Grading	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Relative grading using AURG software offered by Anna University if greater than or equal to 30 students pass the course.</li> <li>Grading based on various mark ranges as stipulated by the Anna University if less than 30 students pass the course.</li> </ol>

3. Resolved that the results of the following programmes and semesters held during June 2022 and presented in this 165th Result Passing Board meeting be approved.

S.No.	Programme	Semester	Courses
1	B.E.	I	Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical & Electronics Engineering, Electronics & Communication Engineering, Computer Science & Engineering
2	B.Tech.	I	Information Technology, Chemical Engineering, Artificial Intelligence and Data Science
3	B.E. (Part- Time)	I	Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical & Electronics Engineering
4	M.E.	I	Structural Engineering, Environmental Engineering and Management, Construction Management, Advanced Manufacturing Technology, Embedded and Real Time systems
5	M.Sc.	I	Software systems, Data Science, Decision and Computing Sciences, Artificial Intelligence & Machine Learning
6	M.C.A.	I	Master of Computer Applications
7	MBA	I	Master of Business Administration

4. Course Considered for Normalization:

Since the class average of different batches of same courses (valued by different examiners) varies only within range of 10 – 15% and considered that this variation is not very low. Hence resolved that no course of the above mentioned programmes and semesters was considered for the normalization.

5. Courses considered for moderation:

As per the stipulated guidelines of Anna University, resolved to approve the moderation process considered for the following courses, which are having less than 65% of overall pass.

ITEM NO : 169.4

- The scheme of general moderation for all branches is that a maximum of 5 marks per semester be added in a single Course or distributed over one or more Courses, so that the student passes in as many Courses as possible.
- Moderation is not applicable to Practical / Project Work and Viva Voce examinations.
- Moderation is not applicable to PG / PhD Course work.
- As a special gesture for the outgoing students of all UG Courses, special moderation of 15 marks added to a single course or to a maximum of two courses, so that the candidates pass the examination and become eligible for the award of degree.

ITEM NO : 169.5

Board expressed its satisfaction to note that there is no attendance shortage case reported.

ITEM NO : 169.6

Withdrawal from Examination - Nil.

ITEM NO : 169.7

Board expressed its extreme elation to have no malpractice case reported in this result passing Board for May 2023 examinations.

ITEM NO :169 : 8

Any Other Matters

1. Resolved that the Chairperson / Result Passing Board be authorized to declare the regular results of May/June 2023 examinations considered in the 169th Result Passing Board Meeting and arrear results of the January/February 2023.
2. Resolved that the Chairperson / Result Passing Board be authorized to declare Revaluation results of the November/December 2022 & January/February 2023 examinations.

- The scheme of general moderation for all branches is that a maximum of 5 marks per semester be added in a single Course or distributed over one or more Courses, so that the student passes in as many Courses as possible.
- Moderation is not applicable to Practical / Project Work and Viva Voce examinations
- Moderation is not applicable to PG / PhD Course work.
- As a special gesture for the outgoing students of all UG Courses, special moderation of 15 marks added to a single course or to a maximum of two courses, so that the candidates pass the examination and become eligible for the award of degree.

- The scheme of general moderation for all branches is that a maximum of 5 marks per semester be added in a single Course or distributed over one or more Courses, so that the student passes in as many Courses as possible.
- Moderation is not applicable to Practical / Project Work and Viva Voce examinations.
- Moderation is not applicable to PG / PhD Course work.
- As a special gesture for the outgoing students of all UG Courses, special moderation of 15 marks added to a single course or to a maximum of two courses, so that the candidates pass the examination and become eligible for the award of degree.
